

FISCAL NOTE

HB 3066 - SB 3171

March 2, 1998

SUMMARY OF BILL: Revises the requirements of the civil service plan to be adopted by the board of a metropolitan airport authority; allows the authority to contract with the Secretary of State or other persons for the services of administrative law judges on a case-by-case basis.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenues - Less Than $100,000

Increase Local Govt. Expenditures - Less Than $100,000 / Permissive

Assumes that local governments will experience increased expenditures to the extent that such an airport authority chooses to contract for the services of administrative law judges.

Also assumes that if the airport authority contracts with the Secretary of State's Office, that the Office will experience an increase in revenues from payments for the use of administrative law judges.
